

Name:

Sec:

Date Due:

Original Song

Outcome:

Final copy of the lyrics and notation must be written in ink or typed. This project must be performed for the class.

Criteria	3	2	1	Not Yet
Originality	Completely original, does not copy a familiar song	Revises familiar tune; uses own words	Copies the tune of a song, but uses own words	Substitutes a few words in a familiar song
Content	Information is accurate; clearly and creatively conveys the intended message	Information is accurate; clearly conveys the intended message	Information is accurate; message is unclear	Inaccurate or incomplete information; no message
Word Choice	Words are extremely clear, visual, and imaginative	Words are strong and create images	Words are accurate, but don't capture anyone's attention	Words and phrases are vague or confusing
Notation	Uses music writing program or hand calligraphy to notate melody, accompaniment and lyrics	Notates melody, rhythm and lyrics mostly accurately on staff paper	Notates melody, rhythm and lyrics somewhat accurately on staff paper	No attempt to notate song
Preparation	Presenter seems prepared and comfortable; body language and voice convey a sense of control	Presenter seems prepared, but somewhat uncomfortable; little eye contact	Presentation is not very well rehearsed; presenter is uncomfortable; no eye contact	Presentation is not rehearsed

How does this project connect with what I've learned?

Sources: _____
